Pathfinder of WV Hosts 10th Annual ‘Motown Throwdown’

MORGANTOWN – Pathfinder of West Virginia, along with Adventure WV, is hosting the 10th Annual Motown Throwdown on Saturday, October 29. The all-day event is a pre-season ski and snowboard competition held in downtown Morgantown beginning at 9:00 a.m.

The Motown Throwdown will feature a street festival beginning at Noon on Saturday, with the ski and snowboard competition starting at 5:00 p.m. in the 200 Block of High Street.

Officers from the Morgantown Police Department will be detouring motorists around this area, while the 200 Block portion of High Street will be closed to traffic for the entire day.

Pathfinder organizers say they teamed up with Adventure WV this year to rent out the Metropolitan Theater after the snowboarding event. There, guests can enjoy a premiere screening of the movie, “The Fourth Phase.” This portion of the event will be from 7:30 p.m. – 10:00 p.m. and feature giveaways and prizes including a season pass to Seven Springs.

Tickets can be purchased for $8.00 at Pathfinder located at 235 High Street. Admission for West Virginia University students is free. Tickets include admission to all of the events, plus a chance to win the Seven Springs season pass raffle.
